MARCH 2017

NEWS

For advertising please contact: Ellie Cranswick at gladstonecomplex1@gmail.com

Happy first month of Autumn! Hope everyone is enjoying the last few long sunny days of summer.

The shade sails have been erected over the decking which looks super and will be brilliant on those hot days.

The winter sports teams are all gearing up for pre-season training and games, feel free to get in contact if you are keen to join in this winter they are always looking for new players.

Look out for upcoming events on our Gladstone Complex website calendar, please feel free to let me know if you have anything you would like to share with the community in the newsletter.

Our next committee meeting will be 4th April at 7pm at the Gladstone Pub. If you would like to get involved please come along, we welcome new faces onto the committee.

GLADSTONE RUGBY

The 2017 rugby season is just around the corner and preseason training is well under way with the A's training Mondays and Thursday and the Reserves looking to start training on Tuesdays as well as Thursday - feel free to come on down to the rugby club for a run!

The Senior A competition starts the weekend of April 8th where Gladstone are drawn to play East Coast at Gladstone with the Senior Reserve competition due to start a couple of weeks after that on April 22nd.

In the meantime there are a couple of preseason games to be held at the newly named Steve Thompson Domain at the Gladstone Sports Complex with Utiku visiting on March 11th and Greytown on March 25th. Both of these games are 2.30pm kickoffs so come along for an early view on how the A's are shaping up this year.

All new players, supporters and sponsors are always welcome so if you are keen to get involved contact:

Sean McBride on 377 5212.

CHURCH NEWS

REFUGEE VISIT Saturday 11 March.

Plans are well underway for hosting another group of recently-arrived refugees (mostly from Syria), in conjunction with Carterton's St Mark's Church. Like last time we will provide lunch and some sport activities at the Complex (11.30am to 1.30pm), visit a farm and then walk around Carter's Reserve, returning to Carterton just after 3 p.m. You can help by contributing to a shared lunch (no meat please), coming and meeting the families at any part of the programme. We also need a couple of offers to meet some of the visitors off the train at 11.15am. Everyone who took part in the similar event in November said what a rewarding experience it was. Please let me know if you can help in any way - Ph 372 7864 or chris.sue@wise.net.nz

HARVEST FESTIVAL SERVICE Sunday 19th March

A service to celebrate harvest time - always appropriate for a rural area. 11 a.m. Please bring fresh or preserved produce or general food items which we will donate to the Carterton Food Bank. Suitable for all ages - all welcome.
